A Place in the Competition Kitchen

At EXPOGAST in Luxembourg, national culinary teams prepare three-course menus for an international jury. Behind each plate are decisions about how to season a dish and which flavors the judges should taste first.

For our flavor developers, the fragrant tingle of Sichuan pepper and the warmth of toasted sesame are familiar starting points. Supporting Team China gives chefs room to take Asian flavors in their own direction on an international stage.

A Send-Off in Shanghai

The chefs and their partners gathered in Shanghai on November 8 before the team's journey to Luxembourg. The certificate presented to Inspiration Spice names our role for Team China. We wish the chefs a steady hand and a proud moment when their plates reach the judges.
